Dear Parents/Guardians:

Starting on November 22nd, we have subscribed to a service through School Messenger and Genesis to initiate automated calls to parents/guardians of students who have been marked absent in the homeroom class. Calls will be made as a notification to all parents for students marked absent. You will still need to call the absentee line and report your child's absence.

Actions to take:

- If you receive the automated message and called the absentee line to report the absence, you can disregard the message.
- If you receive the automated call and did not call the school to report the absence, please contact the absentee line for the school to report the absence.
- If you receive the automated message and have concerns about the attendance status of your child, please call the school's main office immediately.
- If you need help changing the number in which you are receiving School Messenger notification, please email support@tfschools.atlassian.net.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Lisa Goldey, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools
